

Rush Creek Church

<https://rushcreek.org/jobs/director-of-creative-and-communications/>

Director of Creative and Communications

Description

The Director of Creative and Communications is a leadership position in the Creative & Communications area of Central Support and has central responsibilities for Communications, Social Media, Video and Graphics.

Purpose: This position will develop and implement effective communications strategies for the church and ministries to convey vision and priorities to appropriate audiences. This role will also lead the creative process across ministries.

Responsibilities

- Lead strategic meetings with ministries to define, develop, and effectively communicate messages to target audiences.
- Manage the Rush Creek Church brand to ensure consistency and quality.
- Ensure timing and deadlines are met for video, printing, slides, creative and all communications.
- Provide strategic leadership to the Communications Team and Crew (creators, photographers, designers, data analysts, etc.)
- Oversee the creative process related to sermon series and other strategic ministry activities.
- Own the Rush Creek digital strategy and implementation plan.
- Champion the capture and communication of stories that promote the mission and vision of Rush Creek.
- Manage the operational budget, time-away and other tactical components for the Communications Team.

Qualifications

- Must be a follower of Christ and have demonstrated faith through full immersion baptism.
- At least 5 years of experience serving in a similar role for another
- A track record of completing creative projects with excellence and
- A strong creative mind that can function within a consistent brand
- An ability to manage teams effectively.
- An understanding of current marketing and communications strategies and tools.
- A bachelor's degree or advanced degree in a related field.

Contacts

If interested in this position, please email your resume to michellek@rushcreek.org.

Rush Creek Vision Statement: Rush Creek Loves helping people find and follow Jesus.

Hiring organization

Rush Creek Church

Employment Type

Full-time

Date posted

August 18, 2026