Statement on SBC findings:

In light of recent heart-breaking reports of the SBC’s mishandling of sexual abuse cases over the last couple of decades, we stand with each survivor and our prayers are with them as they have felt hurt and overlooked by the very entity that God designed to provide help and healing. At Rush Creek, we stand against abuse of any kind by anyone, particularly those given the privilege and responsibility to love and care for people within the church. We are committed to the safety of everyone in our faith family, young and old, in all ministry environments. We believe that every person is valuable to God and to us. Therefore, we endeavor to treat all people with honor and respect. Any allegation or suspicion of abuse will be given the highest priority and attention. Each of our staff have completed our child safety and abuse training and our student and kids' volunteers are required to complete this each year.
